

Type: Ben Franklin Half Dollar

Year: 1954

Mint Mark: S

Value: As a rough estimate of this coins value you can assume this coin in average condition will be valued at somewhere around $12, while one in mint state (MS) condition could bring $60 at auction if certified. This price does not reference any standard coin grading scale. So when we say average, we mean worn as would be expected from a coin in this age, and mint state meaning MS+ grade and certified*.

Face Value: 0.50 USD

Total Produced: 4,993,000 **

Silver Content: 90%

Extra Info: Coins from the San Francisco mint in CA have the mint mark S, this mark can be found above the liberty bell on the reverse side (back) on the Ben Franklins. They minted 7 thousand short of 5 million. If I ran the mint i would have left it on by mistake until it at least reached 5 Million :) That's like running a marathon and stopping the last 50 yards. The rare FBL (Full Bell Line) versions of the Franklin Half Dollar are worth between $35 and $660 depending upon overall grade and quality of bell lines.
