Value: As a rough estimate of this coins value you can assume this coin in average condition will be valued at somewhere around 10 cents, while one in mint state (MS) condition could bring $8 at auction if certified. This price does not reference any standard coin grading scale. So when we say average, we mean worn as would be expected from a coin in this age, and mint state meaning MS+ grade and certified*.

Extra Info: This was the second year the mint issued Franklin D. Roosevelt dimes with 0% silver. So we are sorry if you have looked this coin up in hopes that it contained silver, it does not. The US stopped minting silver coins in 1964, that means this coin is worth just .02 or 2 cents in metal value.
