Value: As a rough estimate of this coins value you can assume this coin in average condition will be valued at somewhere around $100, while one in mint state (MS) condition could bring $200 at auction if certified. Extra Info: The 1931 San Fran minted Wheat Penny is one of a handful of pennies that could be considered to be key dates. Just 866 thousand of these were ever minted. While 866 thousand sounds like a large number it is small compared to the 34 million minted in 1930. That is supply and demand at work. Another S minted Wheat Penny would not be issued for another 4 years.
