

Type: Wheat Penny

Year: 1955

Mint Mark: No mint mark

Value: As a rough estimate of this coins value you can assume this coin in average condition will be valued at somewhere around 15 cents, while one in mint state (MS) condition could bring $8 at auction if certified. This price does not reference any standard coin grading scale. So when we say average, we mean worn as would be expected from a coin in this age, and mint state meaning MS+ grade and certified*.

Face Value: 0.01 USD

Total Produced: 390,958,000 **

Silver Content: 0%

Extra Info: There is a Double Die Obverse (front side) and they sell for somewhere between $1,000 and $18,000 depending upon condition and color with the RD being worth the most. The 1955 double die Lincoln penny is one of the most coveted coins a collector can own. 378 Thousand proof pennies were also issued here at the mint in San Francisco and they are worth around $25 each.
