

Type: Ben Franklin Half Dollar

Year: 1961

Mint Mark: No mint mark

Value: As a rough estimate of this coins value you can assume this coin in average condition will be valued at somewhere around $12.00, while one in mint state (MS) condition could bring $180 at auction if certified. This price does not reference any standard coin grading scale. So when we say average, we mean worn as would be expected from a coin in this age, and mint state meaning MS+ grade and certified*.

Face Value: 0.50 USD

Total Produced: 8,290,000 **

Silver Content: 90%

Extra Info: There are 3 million proofs issued this year. Of those 3 million there are an unknown number of "Double Die" proofs. The proofs themselves regularly sell for around $22 while the Double Die error proofs sell for somewhere between $1,100 and $1,250 each. The rare FBL (Full Bell Line) versions of the Franklin Half Dollar are worth between $100 and $6,000 depending upon overall grade and quality of bell lines. Making these one of the most expensive in the series.
